

The Transformation Office presents

The Genderbread Person

Sex

Is the physical, chromosomes, chromosomal features used to classify people as male, female or intersex.

Gender

Gender is a social construction of learned behaviors defined as either masculine/men or feminine/ women.

Gender identity is each person's deeply felt internal and individual experience of gender, which may or may not correspond with the sex assigned to them at birth.

Gender expression

Is the way a person expresses themselves – physical appearance, choice in clothing and behavior

Sexual orientation

Is the way a person expresses themselves – physical appearance, choice in clothing and behavior Lesbian - woman who is sexually and/or emotionally attracted to other women.

Gay - refers to men who are attracted to men. Gay is also used as an umbrella term for all people who are attracted to the same sex.

Bisexual - refers to persons who are attracted to more than one gender.

Transgender - Refers to persons whose gender identity does not align with the sex assigned to them at birth

Questioning - "questioning", a phase or period during which an individual is reassessing their sexual orientation or gender identity.

Asexual - refers to people who experience little or no sexual attraction towards other people. "+" in LGBTQI+ represents all other sexual identities including Demisexual, Skoliosexual but it is important for you to know that there are several other identities other than the ones mentioned in the acronym.