

Examples of unconscious bias (stereotypes):

Older people are clueless about/ struggle with using technology.

Being hard-driven and demanding are hallmarks of effective leadership.

Light-skinned women are so beautiful.

Slender silhouettes are the most flattering.

Single parents find it difficult to maintain a healthy work-life balance; their lives are often chaotic, and they tend to miss deadlines.

Company cars should be offered to male employees; they are better drivers after all.

People of Asian descent are more likely to be doctors and mathematicians.

Men should earn more; they are providers.

I must always assist a person with a physical disability.